

KETCHAM ESTATE

Dedicated to Extraordinary Pinot Noir from Russian River Valley

Mark and Allison Ketcham, owners of Ketcham Estate and Ketcham Vineyard, are dedicated to growing exemplary grapes and passionate about producing exceptional Pinot Noir. With a proven track record of earning 90-plus points vintage after vintage, the Ketchams are on their path, and their wines reflect their personal passion and dedication to Pinot Noir.

Literally living their dream, Mark and Allison built their home in their vineyard located in Russian River Valley. Ketcham Vineyard's 17-acres are solely planted to Pinot Noir and contain multiple microclimates due to the cooling westerly winds and a variety of soil structures from the winding creek that borders the property. This diversity of climate and soil, as well as the many Dijon (115, 667, 777 & 828) and Pommard clones, provides Ketcham wine with broad flavor profiles, great depth and structure. Their rare "old vine" block of Pommard-4 is over 25 years old. These venerable Pinot Noir grapes further enhance and deepen the seductive, complex quality of Ketcham Estate wines.
